Family Pension of Dismissed Discharged Employees of Ordnance Factories

750. PROF. SOURENDRA BHATTA-OHARJEE: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the widows of these Central Government employees "who were dismissed or discharged from employment of Ordnance Factories on account of their trade union activities are still not getting family pension;

Ob) whether some of them later were elected representatives of either the Parliament or the State Legislatures and served people for more than one term or so; and

(c) if so, the details of those dismissed or discharged employees who served Parliament, State Legislatures for various terms and whose widows are still not getting family pensions?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI LALIT VIJAY SINGH): (a) Government servants are removed/dismissed from service in accordance with the provisions of CCS (CC&A) Rules, 1965. These rules are not invoked against bonafide trade union activities of the employees.

As per the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules. 1972, dismissal or removal of a Government servant entails forfeiture of service. The employees, who are dismissed or removed from service, are, therefore, not entitled to grant of pension. Consequently, their families are also not entitled to grant of family pension.

(b) and (c) Record of activities and attainments of employees removed/dismissed from service in terms of the provisions of the afore-mentioned Rules is not maintained.
